

DirecTV Channel Line-Up

The Statesman Condominium Association

As of September 26, 2008

The following standard-definition channels are available to all Statesman residents. If you do not have a DirecTV box, you can view them using the NTSC (analog) tuner of your television set. For your convenience, we have included the abbreviations used for each channel in newspaper listings. We suggest you save this page to your computer before printing a copy for your own use.
